snot.
the toy no one wanted.
pick me!

Our story begins
one cold stormy night,
CHILDREN'S TOYS
THE TOY

A toy was created that caused quite a fright.

He was unceremoniously sent down the chute,

His name was Snot
he was far from cute.

Sticky, green and all alone, he set off in hope of finding a home.

But the city can feel like a frightening place,

For a lonely little fella,
with a funny little face.

Nowhere felt safe
Until he chanced upon

for the unwanted toy,

somewhere that filled him with joy.

Then the toys looked scared,
though not of Snot.

But the 50 ft
monster in the parking lot.

Things
were looking really tricky,

But Snot was brave
and Snot was sticky,

‘Our hero’ he heard,
‘You saved the day’.

When he saw who had spoken
his knees gave way.

Now here at Smyths Toys Superstores,
he likes it a lot,

The one place where kids are allowed to pick snot.

Thanks to everyone who picked Snot,
you've given him a home and it won't be forgot.
He might not be the cutest, but you've done a good deed,
all proceeds go to charity to help little ones in need.

The End.
